TELECON
Mr. Hartman/The Secretary
June 5, 1975
time: 4:45 p.m.

RELEASED IN FULL

K: If the Soviets went to 250 kilometers do you think we could get the allies to accept the 30,000?

H: I think so.

K: And what was the other? 18 days?

H: I think it is the depth that concerns them.

K: I wanted to make sure. I was right. Could we sell 250?

H: I think so.

K: I know they are insisting on 300, but could we make it 300?

H: We would have a selling job.

K: We would? Could we in good conscience get behind it?

H: Yes.

K: O.K. What is their view of the date? The week of the 21st or 28th?

H: The Fins say they need four weeks. If we could finish by the 20th of June that would give them until July. They need the flexibility for translation and such.

K: The 20th of June. O.K. Good.

H: They really have made a lot of concessions.

K: Good, thank you.
